 In the Parish Hall

Everyone is invited—Bring your friends.

In the Byzantine Divine Liturgies of St. Basil and St. John Chrysostom, we live out in reality the command of our Lord to “do this in memory of me.” This presentation is a guide to how and why these saints put together words and ritual to enable us to find Christ in our lives and to come together as his people.

Fr. David Petras has a doctorate in Liturgy from the Oriental Institute in Rome and has taught Liturgy at the Byzantine Catholic Seminary in Pittsburgh for twenty years. He is now retired and living in Phoenix, Arizona.

THANK YOU to the gentlemen who are painting the 2 great planters in front of the church, power washing the Bell tower, sidewalks, cutting the trees and shrubs away of the buildings. To the farmer, men and women who prepare the crop of pears for strudel and jams.

DISCOVER GOD'S GAME PLAN MEN 18-35 INVITED TO WEEKEND RETREAT AT SEMINARY 14 - 16 OCTOBER 2016

To be a priest ... don't you have to give up everything - your family, your friends, the things you enjoy? Don't you have to be super holy, super smart, or somehow "different?" "Come and see" if this is the case!

The Byzantine Catholic Seminary of Saints Cyril and Methodius is hosting a "Come and See" weekend for men ages 18 to 35 who may be considering a vocation to the priesthood in the Byzantine Catholic Church. The event runs from Friday evening, 14 October through Sunday afternoon, 16 October 2016 at the Seminary (3605 Perrysville Avenue) in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The weekend retreat is free of charge and will include sharing liturgical services and meals with the Seminary community, an introduction to the Seminary formation program, a tour of the Seminary, gatherings with the Seminarians, talks, and a panel discussion.

The retreat is conducted in a "no pressure, no hard-sell" environment. The atmosphere is prayerful, positive, and fraternal. Any man seeking further information or wishing to register for this "Come and See" retreat of discovery is encouraged to contact his vocation director and use the online registration at www.bcs.edu. Deadline for registrations is the 29th of September.
