GLORY TO JESUS CHRIST! GLORY TO HIM FOREVER!

8:26-27 The Demoniac Naked and Living in Tombs

DEMON POSSESSION SHOWS THE CRUELTY OF DEMONS.

CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA: In great misery and nakedness, he wandered among the graves of the dead. He was in utter wretchedness, leading a disgraceful life. He was a proof of the cruelty of the demons and a plain demonstration of their impurity. ... Whoever they possess and subject to their power, at once they make him an example of great misery, deprived of every blessing, destitute of all sobriety, and entirely deprived even of reason.

Some say, "Why do they possess people?" I answer those who wish to have this explained that the reason of these things is very deep. Somewhere one of his saints addressed God by saying, "Your judgments are a vast abyss." As long as we bear this in mind, we will perhaps not miss the mark. The God of all purposely permits some to fall into their power. He does not do this so that they may suffer but that we may learn by their example how the demons treat us and may avoid the desire of being subject to them. The suffering of one edifies many. Synaxarion for Archangel Michael. His feast and all the Angels of heaven is next Sunday November the 8th.

The name "Michael" in Hebrew means "He who is like God." In the Old Testament, Michael is the "great prince who stands over your people." He is described as the heavenly spirit who watches over Israel (Daniel 10:13, 21). In Jude 9, he is referred to as an archangel. Michael and his angels are described in Revelation as battling the dragon (Satan) and the other angels who lost their place in heaven (See Revelation 12:7-9; Isaiah 14:12; Ezekiel 21:12).

Michael the Archangel is the source of strength and consolation for God's people in times of difficulties. Because of his vigilance over the People of God, he is invoked as a protector of the Church of Christ against the powers of evil. Churches in his honor date from the fourth century and his cult is widespread. In the East, he is venerated as having a care for the sick and policemen and emergency responders.
