 Special thank you for sponsoring our social. We also thank you for keeping our hall clean and neat for others to enjoy.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

YOUR INVITATION to attend Office of Small Compline for the Sanctity of Life Tuesday at 7:30 pm

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME you volunteered for a parish event? There are a lot of needs around the parish that need you and your willingness to help.

Be sure to update your ALL SOULS LIST for 2019. If you don't have a special card in your Budget Sets—use any card or note and drop it into the Sunday Collection or hand it to Father. Due Date February 17.

WEB PAGE FOR ANNUNCIATION was down this past week. Special thank you to our Web Site manager for getting it up and going. It was amazing to see how many calls we received in the parish office from non-parishioners to let us know that the Web Site was not working. Thank you.

What is Pro Life? Are we sure we are 100% Pro Life? – Part V

The Church teaches that all life is sacred and must be cherished and protected from conception to natural death. By keeping this guiding principle in mind in reviewing all the following moral issues of today, we can quickly see what it means to be 100% Pro Life, no exceptions.

Euthanasia or Assisted Suicide

This is an imposed death. It is intentionally doing something or not doing something in order to induce the death of a person.

Both culturally and medically the following terms have been broadly expanded: terminal condition, persistent vegetative state, brain death, and medical treatment. Therefore, when making decisions based on these terms, we must be careful that our first guiding principle still remains not to hasten death because of false compassion for the comfort of the patient. Rather, health care is always to preserve life and give good care until natural death.

What is good care for the terminally ill patient? What if society, the medical profession and their loved ones, and maybe the patient themselves think they should die by their own choice? It's their life, right? If we cannot end their life (euthanasia) or help them take their own life (assisted suicide), what can be done?

The following can be done and is good ethical medical care:

- Administering pain medication whose first purpose is to alleviate intense suffering.
- Stopping treatment that is a grave painful burden on a very sick terminal person.
- Withdrawing nutrition and hydration when a person's body can no longer absorb it and which could even cause them more harm.
- If you believe that Euthanasia or Assisted Suicide is wrong, then you are Pro Life on this issue.

Joan Murray

PRAYER TAKEN FROM THE SMALL COMPLINE SERVICE FOR THE SANCTITY OF LIFE

Deacon: Again, we pray for all who work for life and justice, that with one mind and heart they may proclaim, by their lives, a dedication to what is right and true, and follow the way taught by the Lord Jesus Christ, and let us all say, hear us and have mercy.

Response: Lord, have mercy. (Three times)

Priest:

Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son, who are in the bosom of the Father, True God, source of life and immortality, Light of Light, who came into the world to enlighten it: You were pleased to be conceived in the womb of the Virgin Mary for the salvation of our souls by the power of your all-holy Spirit. Master, you came that we might have life more abundantly. We ask you to enlighten the minds and hearts of those blinded to the truth that life begins at conception and that the unborn in the womb are already adorned with your image and likeness; enable us to guard, cherish, and protect the lives of all those who are unable to care for themselves. For you are the Giver of Life, bringing each person from non-being into being, sealing each person with divine and infinite love. Be merciful, Lord, to those who, through ignorance or willfulness, affront your divine goodness and providence through the evil act of abortion. May they, and all of us, come to the light of your truth and glorify you, the Giver of Life, together with your Father, and your all-holy, good and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response: Amen.
