* REMINDERS ****

As the Holy Days Approach

Recycling – ABCC recycles 'CA CRV' beverage containers from our luncheons and also from parishioner. There are two blue barrels in the hall for those who wish to donate their CRV cans, plastic bottles, and glass bottles. Please be sure they are empty. We have collected $99.23 last week.

Food Bank – We have been collecting non-perishable food items for the food bank located at Saint Boniface Church. There is a bed bucket in the hall for those wishing to donate. This is usually near the bulletin board.

Did you make your reservations for our upcoming Italian Luncheon?

NOVEMBER 8thBy Fr. Mikhail

What are the significant roles of the angels in the New Testament?

Angels are active throughout the New Testament as special messengers of God.

The Archangel Gabriel revealed to Zacharias the forthcoming birth of St. John the Baptist. (Lk 1:11-20)

The Archangel Gabriel assured St. Joseph of St. Mary's purity. He warned him of Herod's plot and told him about Herod's death. (Mt 1:20-25, 2:12, 2:19-20)

The angels announced Jesus' birth to the shepherds. (Lk 2:8-15)

4. The angels ministered to Jesus during His temptation (Mt 4:11), when He was in the Garden of Gethsemane (Lk 22:43), and during the resurrection (Mt 28:2-6).

The angels helped the Apostles in their ministry. (Acts 1:10-11, 5:17-20)

The angels sent Philip into the desert to meet the eunuch. (Acts 8:26)

An angel instructed Cornelius to send for St. Peter. (Acts 10:3-8)

An angel released St. Peter from prison. (Acts 12:7)

An angel judged Herod because of his blasphemy. (Act 12:23)

An angel reassured St. Paul in a storm at the sea. (Acts 27:23-24)

FATHERS AND SPIRITUAL WRITERS ON GUARDIAN ANGELS

Do not be surprised that you fall every day, do not give up, but stand your ground courageously. And assuredly, the angel who guards you will honor your patience. While a wound is still fresh and warm, it is easy to heal; but old, neglected and festering ones are hard to cure, and require for their care much treatment, cutting, plastering and cauterization. Many from long neglect become incurable, but with God all things are possible. St. John Climacus, The Ladder of Divine Ascent

If you feel sweetness or compunction at some word of your prayer, dwell on it; for then our guardian angel is praying with us. St. John Climacus, "The Ladder of Divine Ascent," (Boston: Holy Transfiguration Monastery, 1978), Step 28: On Holy and Blessed Prayer, the Mother of Virtues, and on the Attitude of Mind and Body in Prayer

In the presence of an invisible spirit, the body becomes afraid; but in the presence of an angel, the soul of the humble is filled with joy. Therefore, when we recognize the presence from the effect, let us quickly hasten to prayer, for our good guardian has come to pray with us. St. John Climacus, "The Ladder of Divine Ascent," (Boston: Holy Transfiguration Monastery, 1978), STEP 21: On Unmanly and Puerile Cowardice

The angel who is always near us is by nothing so distressed and made indignant as when, without being constrained by some necessity, we deprive ourselves of the ministration of the Holy Mysteries and of reception of Holy Communion, which grants remission of sins. For at that hour the priest offers up the sacrifice of the Body of Him Who gives us life, and the Holy Spirit descends and consecrates the Body and Blood and grants remission to creation. The Cherubim, the Seraphim, and the angels stand with great awe, fear, and joy. They rejoice over the Holy Mysteries while experiencing inexpressible astonishment. The angel who is always by us is consoled, because he also partakes in that dread spectacle and is not deprived of that perfect intercourse. St. Isaac the Syrian
