BRIGHT WEEK This is the week of joy, for Christ has destroyed the kingdom of death and the power of sink, and has established the Kingdom of god. Death no longer reigns over human life, and paradise is re-opened to all, symbolized by the Royal and Beautiful Doors of the Iconostasis remaining open throughout the week.

through the power of the Spirit, all of mankind and the whole cosmos are renewed. In the ancient tradition, the newly-baptized, having entered into a new life in the hope of Resurrection, wore their white garments of joy and purity throughout the week.

*We do not chant for the departed during this week,
for Christ has destroyed the power of death.*

Christ is Risen! Christos Voskrese! Cristo ha resucitado!

Indeed He is risen! Voinstinnu voskrese! En verdad, esta resucitado!

Dear clergy and faithful of Holy Protection of Mary Eparchy of Phoenix,

What is the message of Easter for our Church in this year of so much scandal, shame and sin that has found the headlines in today's multi-faceted media? The only acceptable answer is our traditional Easter greeting: "Christ is Risen!". We must look to the Risen Christ to heal and lift up our Church from this terrible mess. The Risen Christ once again offers us new life and hope in our troubled world.

Our simple yet profound greeting, "Christ is Risen!", offers each and everyone of us hope and joy not only during the Paschal Season, but throughout the entire year. The truth of our Faith is concentrated in that greeting and the meaning of our earthly lives as well. Without the Resurrection of Christ there is neither Christianity nor eternal life for us. The crucified Christ has died for us, but is risen from the dead and in the words of St. John Chrysostom: "the Risen Christ has liberated our life and the tomb is emptied of its dead for Christ having risen from the dead, has become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep".

As we proclaim in the Resurrection Matins:

"This is the day of Resurrection. Let us be enlightened by this Feast and let us embrace one another. Let us call brethren those who hate us and in the Resurrection forgive everything and sing: Christ is risen from the dead! By death He TRAMPLED death and to all in the tombs He granted life."

May the Risen Christ unite all of us with His love, fill us with spiritual joy and establish peace and happiness in our hearts.

Sincerely yours in the Risen Christ,

Most Reverend John S. Pazak, C.Ss.R.
