REGARDING LITURGICAL SERVICES & PARISH ACTIVITIES AT ANNUNCIATION

To aid in the prevention of the spread of COVID-19, for the present time there can be no “open” Liturgical Services, and all parish activities and events have been postponed until further notice. The clergy and cantors will continue to celebrate the various services privately until such time as our Church family may again safely regather to celebrate our normal Liturgical schedule.

The Church doors will be open from 9:00 am till 6:00 pm, Monday, Wednesday & Friday, for personal prayer and devotion.

Tuesdays are Father’s day at St. Nicholas in Fontana Thursdays the parish office is closed.

In the meantime, you are encouraged to join us in Spiritual Communion by viewing our privately celebrated Liturgical services FACEBOOK.com/stephen.washko.

THE FEAST OF MID-PENTECOST The giving of the Spirit unites the beginning and the end of the fifty day feast of our Lord. On Pascha, the Lord, the giver of Life, breathed the Holy Spirit upon his apostles for the forgiveness of sin, and on Pentecost, the Lord sent the Holy Spirit upon his followers that the Gospel for the baptism of repentance might be preached to all nations. Through the Holy Spirit, we are united with Christ in Holy Communion and are deified by his power. In the middle of the feast we celebrate all the wondrous works of God.

HOW TO DISCERN YOUR VOCATION

1 PRAY

Establish a routine prayer life of attending Mass regularly, praying the Rosary, meditating on Scripture, journaling, making a retreat, and spending time with the Lord in front of the Blessed Sacrament.

2 TALK

Contact your Diocesan Vocations Director and speak to them about your discernment thus far to get their advice on next steps.

3 SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Spiritual Direction, often by a priest or consecrated person, attunes the heart to the voice of the Lord and will help you identify how the Holy Spirit is moving in your life.

4 COME & SEE

Often coordinated by the diocesan vocation office, these "Come & See" events offer a glimpse into the life of a seminarian / religious sister and will help you identify if this is the life to which God is calling you.

5 GET INVOLVED

Consider volunteering in your parish or community and finding trusted friends who can provide support and accountability for your discernment journey.

6 REST

Discerning a vocation should not be considered an "accomplishment" that you check off your to do list. It's a daily walking with God that involves the whole person. A healthy life balance of eating well, exercising, and getting the proper amount of rest will positively contribute to your spiritual well-being!

World Day of Vocations Prayer

Lord our God, You are older than all creation, and have made us in your image and likeness. You gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter and Spirit of Truth, to be with us always, to give to your Church all the gifts needed for sanctification. Today we humbly beg You, together with your Church throughout the world, to grant us an abundance of vocations to your holy priesthood, to the diaconate in Christ, and to the consecrated life. Do not leave your church deprived of spiritual gifts. Open our hearts to hear the words of your invitation, "Come, follow me." Give to your Church servants ready to follow You with zeal and courage. Give to your Church servants who, in their weakness, have received the Spirit of wisdom and understanding. Give to your Church servants ready to lead and to serve, to teach and to comfort, to give of themselves and to receive a heavenly reward. Indeed, do not leave us orphans, but be with us through your Holy Spirit, who is present everywhere and fills all things, and who raises up mere mortals to divine service in love of your people, the Church.

For You alone are holy and the giver of sanctification, always, now and ever and forever. Amen.

Troparia

The Troparion and Theotokion for Vocations in Tone 8 (these hymns may be recited):

O Savior, You called the fishermen and they immediately left their nets to follow You. * Your voice resounds with authority, * "Make disciples of all nations, * teach them to carry out everything I have commanded." * Give us today zealous workers for your kingdom to reap the harvest of faith; * for You provide always for your beloved Church.

Glory to the Father, + and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

O holy Virgin, Mother of God, * with confidence you told those at the wedding of Cana, * "Do whatever my Son tells you." * Ask Him to provide an abundance of vocations for the Church.

We are trying to find the most effective way to communicate our Parish news, especially our Parish Bulletin. Would you please let us know how you would prefer to receive to parish bulletin.
